Title: To amend title 17, United States Code, to update copyright law to address contemporary business practices and technologies and to support the growth of digital technologies without undermining incentives for creators, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the “Digital Copyright Act of 2021”.

SEC. 2. LIMITATIONS ON LIABILITY RELATING TO MATERIAL ONLINE.

Section 512 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking subsections (a) through (d) and inserting the following:

“(a) Transitory Digital Network Communications.—

“(1) In general.—A service provider shall not be liable for monetary relief, or, except as provided in subsection (j), for injunctive or other equitable relief, for infringement of copyright by reason of:

“(A) the provider’s transmitting, routing, or providing connections for, material through a system or network controlled or operated by or for the service provider, or by reason of the intermediate and transient storage of that material in the course of such transmitting, routing, or providing connections, if —

“(i) the transmission of the material was initiated by or at the direction of a person other than the service provider;

“(ii) the transmission, routing, provision of connections, or storage is carried out through an automatic technical process without selection of the material by the service provider;

“(iii) the service provider does not select the recipients of the material except as an automatic response to the request of another person;

“(iv) no copy of the material made by the service provider in the course of such intermediate or transient storage is maintained on the system or network in a manner ordinarily accessible to anyone other than anticipated recipients, and no such copy is maintained on the system or network in a manner ordinarily accessible to such anticipated recipients for a longer period than is reasonably necessary for the transmission, routing, or provision of connections; and

“(v) the material is transmitted through the system or network without modification of its content.

“(B) the intermediate and temporary storage of material on a system or network controlled or operated by or for the service provider in a case in which—"
“(i) the material is made available online by a person other than the service provider;
“(ii) the material is transmitted from the person described in subparagraph (i) through the system or network to a person other than the person described in subparagraph (i) at the direction of that other person; and “(iii) the storage is carried out through an automatic technical process for the purpose of making the material available to users of the system or network who, after the material is transmitted as described in subparagraph (ii), request access to the material from the person described in subparagraph (iii).
“(C) storage at the direction of a user of material that resides on a system or network controlled or operated by or for the service provider[, or activities related to such storage].
“(D) provider referring or linking users to an online location containing infringing material or infringing activity, by using information location tools, including a directory, index, reference, pointer, or hypertext link.
“(2) A service provider, as described in subsection (1) of this paragraph, will be eligible for the limitation on liability if the service provider—“(A) does not have actual knowledge that the material or an activity so using the material is infringing;
“(B) in the absence of actual knowledge described in subparagraph (A)— “(i) is not aware of facts or circumstances from which infringing activity is likely;
“(ii) is not willfully blind with respect to the infringement, or does not induce the infringement; and “(iii) for service providers eligible under subparagraphs (C) or (D), does not receive a financial benefit directly attributable to the infringing activity, if the service provider has the right and ability to control that activity;
“(C) upon receiving a notification under subsection (b)— “(i) acts expeditiously to—“(I) remove, or disable access to, the material that is claimed to be infringing or the subject of infringing activity; and “(II) notify the user in accordance with standards established under rules issued by the Copyright Office under subsection (g) of—“(aa) the removal or disabling, as applicable; and “(bb) the right of the user to file a counter notification under subsection (g); and “(ii) takes certain steps to ensure that, absent a sworn statement from the user (without regard to whether the user is the copyright owner) that, subject to subsection (f), the user has a [subjective] good faith belief that the use is licensed or otherwise authorized by law, including that the use is permitted under section 107, the allegedly infringing materials stays down when:

“(aa) a complete or near complete copy of a copyrighted work already identified in a notification of claimed infringement or list of unauthorized works as provided in [XX], or

“(bb) any portion of a copyrighted work already identified in a notification of claimed infringement or list of unauthorized works as provided in [XX], if the service provider derives its commercial value predominantly from short-form media.; and

“(D) if, for service providers eligible under subparagraph (B), the service providers meets these conditions:

“(i)—(iv) [incorporates the current language of subsection (b)(2)]

“(E) follow reasonableness best practices established by the Register of Copyrights, which the Register, in consultation with the NTIA, shall update once every 5 years [beginning one year after date of enactment of this statute], that account for factors including the type and size of the service provider and the scale of infringement that occurs the service. Such best practices may include standards such as requiring a user that uploads or publicly performs or displays content on or across the service to affirm that the user holds the copyright to that content, has permission to upload or publicly perform that content, or is otherwise authorized by law.

“(b) Notification.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—To be effective under this subsection, a notification of claimed infringement submitted to a service provider, whether submitted by an individual or automated process, shall be a written communication provided to the designated agent of the service provider, as described in subsection (c), that includes substantially the following:

“(A) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

“(B) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a non-exhaustive representative list of those allegedly infringed works at that website.

“(C)(i) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material.

“(ii) If the same copyrighted work is claimed to be infringed by multiple items of material or at multiple locations on a single website, the identification shall be sufficient for the purposes of clause (i) if the notification identifies not less than 1 such item of material and not less than 1 such location, rather than specific web addresses for each location.

“(D) Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, or electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.

“(E) A statement that the complaining party has a [subjective] good faith belief that the use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

“(F) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

“(2) SUBSTANTIAL COMPLIANCE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), a notification from a copyright owner or from a person authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner that fails to comply substantially with the provisions of paragraph (1) shall not be considered under subsection (a) in determining whether a service provider has actual knowledge or is aware of facts or circumstances from which infringing activity is apparent.

“(B) PARTIAL COMPLIANCE.—In a case in which a notification under paragraph (1) that is provided to a service provider’s designated agent fails to comply substantially with all of the requirements of paragraph (1) but substantially complies with subparagraphs (B), (C), and (D) of that paragraph, subparagraph (A) of this paragraph applies only if the service provider promptly attempts to contact the person submitting the notification or takes other reasonable actions to assist in the receipt of a notification that substantially complies with all the provisions of subparagraph (A).

“(C) PENALTY.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—A person that submits a notification under this paragraph without a [subjective] good faith belief that the use that is the subject of the notification is unauthorized shall be subject to damages under subsection (f).

“(ii) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in clause (i) may be construed to subject a person that submits a notification containing a mistake to a penalty under subsection (f) if the notification is sent in good faith and is at least minimally compliant with the requirements under subparagraph (A).

“(3) WEB FORMS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Each service provider with a public-facing website shall, based on criteria established under rules issued by the Register of Copyrights under subparagraph (B), make available—

“(i) a web form for submitting to the service provider a notice under paragraph (1);

“(ii) a physical and electronic mail address for the submission of either a physical or electronic notice sent under paragraph (1); and

“(iii) a process by which, as a supplement to the materials made available under clauses (i) and (ii), a service provider may enter into a voluntary agreement with a copyright owner for an alternative noticing process under this subsection.

“(B) RULES.—
“(i) IN GENERAL.—Not later than [X] after the date of enactment of the Digital Copyright Act of 2021, the Register of Copyrights shall issue rules that, taking into consideration the different types of service providers, establishes the format for a form described in subparagraph (A).

“(ii) UPDATES.—The Register of Copyrights shall update the rules issued under subparagraph (B) once every 5 years.

“(4) PROHIBITIONS.—With respect to a notification submitted under this subsection—

“(A) the person submitting the notification may not include in the notification information with respect to licensing or any demand of payment; and

“(B) if the notification contains any item prohibited under subparagraph (A)—

“(i) the notification shall be considered to be void and without effect under subsection (a); and

“(ii) the person submitting the notification shall be subject to damages under subsection (f).

“(5) PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION.—Not later than [X] after the date of enactment of the Digital Copyright Act of 2021, the Register of Copyrights shall issue rules that provide which personally identifiable information [such as physical address] shall be protected by a service provider under a fiduciary duty and redacted or withheld when a service provider shares any information from a notification under this subsection.

“(c) Designated Agent.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—The limitations on liability established under subsection (a) apply to a service provider only if the service provider has designated an agent to receive notifications submitted under subsection (b), by making available through its service, including on its website in a conspicuous location that is accessible to the public, and by providing to the Copyright Office, substantially the following information:

“(A) The name, address, phone number, and electronic mail address of the agent.

“(B) Other contact information which the Register of Copyrights may deem appropriate.

“(2) DIRECTORY.—The Register of Copyrights shall maintain a current directory of agents available to the public for inspection, including through the internet, and may require payment of a fee by service providers to cover the costs of maintaining the directory.

“(d) A service provider that does not satisfy the requirements of this section shall not enjoy the limitation on liability or, where noncompliance is under subsection (g), or damages under subsection (f).

“(f) Remedies.—

“(1) MISREPRESENTATIONS AND BAD FAITH.—Any person who knowingly materially represents under this section that material or activity is infringing, or that material or activity was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification, or otherwise acts in bad faith, shall be liable for any damages, including costs and attorneys’ fees, incurred by the alleged infringer, by any copyright owner or copyright owner’s authorized licensee, or by a service provider, who is injured by such misrepresentation, as the result of the service provider relying upon such misrepresentation in removing or disabling access to the material or activity claimed to be infringing, or in replacing the removed material or ceasing to disable access to it.

“(2) REPEATEDLY SENDING FALSE NOTIFICATIONS.—If a person repeatedly and falsely submits notifications under subsection (b) or counter notifications under subsection (g)(3)—

“(A) that person shall be placed on a list maintained by the Register of Copyrights, which the Register shall establish through rules that the Register shall update once every 5 years; and “(B) a service provider that receives a notification or counter notification sent by a person that is on the list described in subparagraph (A) may elect not to respond to the notification or counter notification without facing any adverse consequence under this section.

“(3) RESPONDING TO A COUNTER NOTICE.—If a service provider disables access to, or removes, material or activity under subsection (a) without satisfying the requirements under subsection (g), the person against which the service provider takes that action may bring a civil action against the service provider, for monetary damages, including attorneys’ fees and costs, or injunctive relief, in an appropriate district court of the United States or under paragraph (4).

“(4) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD.—

“(A) MISREPRESENTATION OR BAD FAITH.—Any claim for misrepresentation or bad faith under this subsection may be brought, upon voluntary agreement of both parties, before the [Copyright Claims Board] on an expedited basis pursuant to rules issued by the Register of Copyrights, which the Register shall update once every 5 years.

(3) in subsection (g)—

(A) in paragraph (1), by inserting “if the service provider retains the allegedly infringing content for 30 days and replaces the removed material or ceases disabling access to it in accordance with the requirements of this subsection” after “determined to be infringing”;

(B) in paragraph (2)—

(i) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by striking “subsection (c)(1)(C)” and inserting “subsection (b)”;

(ii) in subparagraph (A), by inserting “and provides, as established by the Register of Copyright, by rule, counter notice forms to the subscriber, which shall include information regarding the fair use doctrine” after “to the material”;

(iii) in subparagraph (B)—

(I) by striking “subsection (c)(1)(C)” and inserting “subsection (b)”;

(II) by striking “in 10 business days” and inserting “in 5 business days, unless the designated agent of the service provider first receives notice from the person that submitted the notification under subsection (b) that the alleged infringement exceeds the statutory maximum 1501 of this title [[copyright small claims]] and that such person is, in good faith, considering filing an action seeking a court order to restrain the subscriber from engaging in infringing activity”;

(iv) in subparagraph (C)—

(I) by striking “10” and inserting “5”;

(II) by striking “14” and inserting “30”; and

(III) by striking “subsection (c)(1)(C)” and inserting “subsection (b)”;

(C) in paragraph (3)—

(i) in the matter preceding subparagraph (A), by inserting “, or submitted by means of a web form (the format for which shall be established by the Register of Copyrights, by rule),” after “designated agent”;

(ii) in subparagraph (C), by inserting “because the material is licensed to the user or otherwise authorized by law” after “mistake”;

(iii) in subparagraph (D)—

(I) by inserting “the Copyright Claims Board,” after “jurisdiction of”; and

(II) by inserting “if damages exceed $30,000 under subsection (e) of section 1504” after “is located”; and

(iv) by adding at the end the following:

“(E) An explanation of the alleged mistake contained in the original notification and a description of any license under which the subscriber is operating or a description of any [subjective good faith] claim that the subscriber could make under section 107 with respect to the material.”;

(D) in paragraph (4), by striking “subsection (c)(1)(C)” and inserting “subsection

and

(E) by adding at the end the following:

“(5) PERSONALLY IDENTIFIABLE INFORMATION.— Not later than [X] after the date of enactment of the Digital Copyright Act of 2021, the Register of Copyrights shall issue rules that provide which personally identifiable information [such as physical address] shall be protected by a service provider under a fiduciary duty and redacted or withheld when a service provider shares any information from a counter notification under this subsection

“(6) CHALLENGES TO COUNTER NOTICE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—A notice sender to which a counter notification is provided under this subsection may send the service provider a challenge claiming that the counter notification is facially invalid.

“(B) SUBJECT TO DAMAGES.—A challenge brought under subparagraph (A) that is not brought in good faith shall be subject to the damages under [subsection (f)].”;

(4) in subsection (h), by striking all references to “notification described in subsection
(c)(3)(A)” and replacing with the following:

“a notice containing substantially the same information as a notification submitted under subsection (b);”;

(5) in subsection (i)—

(A) in paragraph (1)—

(i) in subparagraph (A), by striking “repeat infringers” and inserting “persons that, on multiple occasions, were the subject of notifications under subsection (b) that were not successfully challenged”; and

(ii) in subparagraph (B), by striking “accommodates and does not interfere with” and inserting “adopts (or, where utilized by copyright owners, does not interfere with)”;

(B) by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (3);

(C) by inserting after paragraph (1) the following:

“(2) RULEMAKINGS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Not later than [X] after the date of enactment of this Act, the Register of Copyrights shall—

“(i) in consultation with the NTIA, develop and maintain a model policy with respect to persons described in paragraph (1)(A) that shall determine minimum requirements for service providers; and

“(ii) in consultation with the National Institute of Standards and Technology, identify and adopt standard technical measures and clarify that, when adopted, shall be made available to copyright owners and service providers on fair, reasonable, and non-discriminatory terms.

“(B) UPDATES.—The Register of Copyrights shall update the material developed and established under subparagraph (A) once every 5 years.”;

(D) in paragraph (3), as so redesignated—

(i) inserting “or service providers to manage copyrighted works on the service” after “or protect copyrighted works”;

(ii) in subparagraph (B)—

(I) by inserting “, or can be made available,” after “are available”; and

(II) by striking “and” at the end;

(iii) in subparagraph (C)—

(I) by inserting “and disproportionate” after “substantial”; and

(II) by striking the period at the end and inserting “; and”; and

(iv) by adding at the end the following:

“(D) vary across types and sizes of service providers.”;
(6) in subsection (m)(1), by inserting “or if that monitoring would be reasonable in consideration of the rules issued under subsection (a)(2)” after “subsection (i)”; and

(7) by adding at the end the following:

“(o) Review.—The Attorney General, in consultation with the Register of Copyrights, may review a voluntary agreement for addressing copyright infringement online that raises antitrust concerns or constrains uses that are otherwise authorized under this title.”

SEC. 3. LIMITATION ON REMEDIES IN CASES INVOLVING ORPHAN WORKS.

(a) Amendment.—Chapter 5 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

“514. Limitation on remedies in cases involving orphan works

“(a) Definitions.—In this section:

“(1) NOTICE OF CLAIM OF INFRINGEMENT.—The term ‘notice of claim of infringement’ means, with respect to a claim of copyright infringement, a written notice sent from the owner of the infringed copyright, or a person acting on the owner’s behalf, to the infringer, or a person acting on the infringer’s behalf, that includes at a minimum—

“(A) the name of the owner of the infringed copyright;

“(B) the title of the infringed work, any alternative titles of the infringed work known to the owner of the infringed copyright, or if the work has no title, a description in detail sufficient to identify that work;

“(C) an address and telephone number at which the owner of the infringed copyright or a person acting on behalf of the owner may be contacted; and “(D) information reasonably sufficient to permit the infringer to locate the infringer’s material in which the infringed work resides.

“(2) OWNER OF THE INFRINGED COPYRIGHT.—The ‘owner of the infringed copyright’ is the owner of any particular exclusive right under section 106 that is applicable to the infringement, or any person or entity with the authority to grant or license such right.

“(3) REASONABLE COMPENSATION.—The term ‘reasonable compensation’ means, with respect to a claim of infringement, the amount on which a willing buyer and willing seller in the positions of the infringer and the owner of the infringed copyright would have agreed with respect to the infringing use of the work immediately before the infringement began.

“(b) Conditions for Eligibility.—

“(1) CONDITIONS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding sections 502 through 506, and subject to subparagraph (B), in an action brought under this title for infringement of copyright in a work, the remedies for infringement shall be limited in accordance with subsection (c) if the infringer—

“(i) proves by a preponderance of the evidence that before the infringement began, the infringer, a person acting on behalf of the infringer, or any person jointly and severally liable with the infringer for the infringement—

“(I) performed and documented a qualifying search, in good faith, to locate and identify the owner of the infringed copyright; and

“(II) was unable to locate and identify an owner of the infringed copyright;

“(ii) prior to using the work, filed with the Register of Copyrights a Notice of Use under paragraph (3);

“(iii) provided attribution, in a manner that is reasonable under the circumstances, to the legal owner of the infringed copyright, if such legal owner was known with a reasonable degree of certainty, based on information obtained in performing the qualifying search;

“(iv) included with the public distribution, display, or performance of the infringing work a symbol or other notice of the use of the infringing work, the form and manner of which shall be prescribed by the Register of Copyrights;

“(v) asserts in the initial pleading to the civil action eligibility for such limitations; and

“(vi) at the time of making the initial discovery disclosures required under rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, states with particularity the basis for eligibility for the limitations, including a detailed description and documentation of the search undertaken in accordance with paragraph (2)(A) and produces documentation of the search.

“(B) EXCEPTION.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply if, after receiving notice of the claim for infringement and having an opportunity to conduct an expeditious good faith investigation of the claim, the infringer—

“(i) fails to negotiate reasonable compensation in good faith with the owner of the infringed copyright; or “(ii) fails to render payment of reasonable compensation in a reasonably timely manner after reaching an agreement with the owner of the infringed copyright or under an order described in subsection (c)(1)(A).

“(2) REQUIREMENTS FOR SEARCHES.—

“(A) REQUIREMENTS FOR QUALIFYING SEARCHES.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—A search qualifies under paragraph (1)(A)(i)(I) if the infringer, a person acting on behalf of the infringer, or any person jointly and severally liable with the infringer for the infringement, undertakes a diligent effort that is reasonable under the circumstances to locate the owner of the infringed copyright prior to, and at a time reasonably proximate to, the infringement.

“(ii) DILIGENT EFFORT.—For purposes of clause (i), a diligent effort—

“(I) requires, at a minimum—

“(aa) a search of the records of the Copyright Office that are available to the public through the Internet and relevant to identifying and locating copyright owners, provided there is sufficient identifying information on which to construct a search;

“(bb) a search of reasonably available sources of copyright authorship and ownership information and, where appropriate, licensor information;

“(cc) use of appropriate technology tools, printed publications, and where reasonable, internal or external expert assistance; and “(dd) use of appropriate databases, including databases that are available to the public through the Internet; and “(II) includes any actions that are reasonable and appropriate under the facts relevant to the search, including actions based on facts known at the start of the search and facts uncovered during the search, and including a review, as appropriate, of Copyright Office records not available to the public through the Internet that are reasonably likely to be useful in identifying and locating the copyright owner.

“(iii) CONSIDERATION OF RECOMMENDED PRACTICES. — A qualifying search under this subsection shall ordinarily be based on the applicable statement of Recommended Practices made available by the Copyright Office.

“(iv) LACK OF IDENTIFYING OF INFORMATION. — Each of the following circumstances shall not be considered to be sufficient to meet the conditions under paragraph (1)(A)(i)(I):

“(I) A particular copy or phonorecord lacks identifying information pertaining to the owner of the infringed copyright.

“(II) An owner of the infringed copyright fails to respond to any inquiry or other communication about the work.

“(v) USE OF RESOURCES FOR CHARGE. — A qualifying search under paragraph (1)(A)(i)(I) may require use of resources for which a charge or subscription is imposed to the extent reasonable under the circumstances.

“(vi) EFFECT OF FOREIGN SEARCHES. — If a search is found to be qualifying under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction, and this search is relied upon in part by a U.S. infringer, a court may take this fact into account when determining whether the United States search is qualifying, provided the foreign jurisdiction accepts qualifying United States searches in a reciprocal manner.

“(B) INFORMATION TO GUIDE SEARCHES; RECOMMENDED PRACTICES. —

“(i) STATEMENTS OF RECOMMENDED PRACTICES. —

“(I) IN GENERAL. — The Register of Copyrights shall maintain and make available to the public and, from time to time, update not less than 1 statement of Recommended Practices for each category, or, in the discretion of the Register, subcategory of work under section 102(a), for conducting and documenting a search under this subsection.
“(II) CONTENTS.— A statement under subclause (I) shall ordinarily include reference to materials, resources, databases, and technology tools that are relevant to a search.

“(III) ADDITIONAL STATEMENTS.—The Register of Copyrights may maintain and make available more than 1 statement of Recommended Practices for each category or subcategory, as appropriate.

“(ii) CONSIDERATION OF RELEVANT MATERIALS.—In maintaining and making available and, from time to time, updating the Recommended Practices under clause (i), the Register of Copyrights—

“(I) shall, in the discretion of the Register, consider materials, resources, databases, technology tools, and practices that are reasonable and relevant to the qualifying search; and “(II) may consider any comments submitted to the Copyright Office by any interested entities.

“(3) NOTICE OF USE ARCHIVE.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—The Register of Copyrights shall create and maintain an archive to retain the Notices of Use filed under paragraph (1)(A)(ii).

“(B) CONTENTS.—Each Notice of Use filed under paragraph (1)(A)(ii) shall include—

“(i) the type of work being used, as described in section 102(a);

“(ii) a description of the work;

“(iii) a summary of the search conducted under paragraph (1)(A)(i)(I);

“(iv) the owner, author, recognized title, and other available identifying element of the work to the extent the infringer knows such information with a reasonable degree of certainty;

“(v) the source of the work, including the library or archive in which the work was found, the publication in which the work originally appeared, the website from which the work was taken, (including the url and the date the site was accessed);

“(vi) a certification that the infringer performed a qualifying search in good faith under this subsection to locate the owner of the infringed copyright; and

“(vii) the name of the infringer and how the work will be used.

“(C) AVAILABILITY.—A Notice of Use filed under paragraph (1)(A)(ii) and retained under the control of the Copyright Office shall be made available to individuals or the public only under the conditions specified by regulations of the Copyright Office.

“(4) PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY.—If an infringer fails to comply with any requirement under this subsection, the infringer shall not be eligible for a limitation on remedies under this section.

“(c) Limitations on Remedies.—The limitations on remedies in an action for infringement of a copyright to which this section applies are the following:

“(1) MONETARY RELIEF.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), a court may not award monetary relief (including actual damages, statutory damages, costs, and attorney’s fees), except that the court may require the infringer to pay reasonable compensation to the owner of the exclusive right under the infringed copyright for the use of the infringed work.

“(B) LIMITATIONS.—An order requiring the infringer to pay reasonable compensation for the use of the infringed work may not be made under subparagraph (A) if—

“(i) the infringer is a nonprofit educational institution, museum, library, archives, or a public broadcasting entity (as such term is defined in section 118(f)), or any of such entities’ employees acting within the scope of their employment; and

“(ii) the infringer proves by a preponderance of the evidence that—

“(I) the infringement was performed without any purpose of direct or indirect commercial advantage;

“(II) the infringement was primarily educational, religious, or charitable in nature; and

“(III) after receiving a notice of claim of infringement, and having an opportunity to conduct an expeditious good faith investigation of the claim, the infringer promptly ceased the infringement.

“(C) EFFECT OF REGISTRATION ON REASONABLE COMPENSATION.—If a work is registered, the court may, in determining reasonable compensation under this paragraph, take into account the value, if any, added to the work by reason of such registration.

“(2) INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in subparagraph (B)—

“(i) the court may impose injunctive relief to prevent or restrain any infringement alleged in the civil action; and

“(ii) in the case of an infringer that has met the requirements of subsection (b), the relief described in clause (i) shall, to the extent practicable and subject to applicable law, account for any harm that the relief would cause the infringer due to its reliance on subsection (b).

“(B) EXCEPTION.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an infringer, which is not a case described in clause (ii), that has prepared or commenced preparation of a new work of authorship that recasts, transforms, adapts, or integrates the infringed work with a significant amount of original expression, any injunctive relief ordered by the court may not restrain the infringer’s continued preparation or use of that new work, if—
“(I) the infringer pays reasonable compensation in a reasonably timely manner after the amount of such compensation has been agreed upon with the owner of the infringed copyright or determined by the court; and

“(II) the court requires that the infringer provide attribution, in a manner that is reasonable under the circumstances, to the legal owner of the infringed copyright, if requested by such owner.

“(ii) CERTAIN CASES DESCRIBED.—For purposes of paragraph (1), a case described in this subparagraph is a case in which the owner of the infringed work—

“(I) is also an author of the work;

“(II) requests the injunctive relief described in subparagraph (A); and “(III) alleges, and the court so finds, that the infringer’s continued and intentional preparation or use of the new work would be prejudicial to the owner’s honor or reputation, and this harm is not otherwise compensable.

“(C) LIMITATIONS.—The limitations on injunctive relief under subparagraphs (A) and (B) may not be available to an infringer, or a representative of the infringer acting in an official capacity, if the infringer asserts that neither the infringer nor any representative of the infringer acting in an official capacity is subject to suit in the courts of the United States for an award of damages for the infringement, unless the court finds that the infringer—

“(i) has complied with the requirements of subsection (b); and

“(ii) pays reasonable compensation to the owner of the exclusive right under the infringed copyright in a reasonably timely manner after the amount of reasonable compensation has been agreed upon with the owner or determined by the court.

“(D) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in subparagraph (C) shall be construed to authorize or require, and no action taken under such subparagraph shall be deemed to constitute, either an award of damages by the court against the infringer or an authorization to sue a State.

“(E) RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES NOT WAIVED.—No action taken by an infringer under subparagraph (C) shall be considered to waive any right or privilege that, as a matter of law, protects the infringer from being subject to suit in the courts of the United States for an award of damages.

“(d) Preservation of Other Rights, Limitations, and Defenses.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—This section shall not affect any right, or any limitation or defense to copyright infringement, including fair use, under this title.

“(2) EFFECT ON OTHER PROVISIONS.—In the case of another provision of this title that provides for a statutory license that would permit the use contemplated by the infringer, such other provision shall apply.

“(e) Copyright for Derivative Works and Compilations.—Notwithstanding section 103(a), an infringer that qualifies for the limitation on remedies afforded by this section shall not be denied copyright protection in a compilation or derivative work on the basis that such compilation or derivative work employs preexisting material that has been used unlawfully under this section.

“(f) Exclusion for Fixations in or on Useful Articles.—The limitations on remedies under this section shall not be available to an infringer for infringements resulting from fixation of a pictorial, graphic, or sculptural work in or on a useful article that is offered for sale or other commercial distribution to the public.”.

(b) Table of Sections Amendment.—The table of sections for chapter 5 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 513 the following:

“514. Limitation on remedies in cases involving orphan works.”.

(c) Effective Date.—The amendments made by this section shall take effect on [January 1, 20__.]

(C) in subparagraph (D)—

(i) by inserting “(i)” after “(D)”;

(ii) in clause (i), as so designated, by inserting “for purposes of subparagraph (B)(i)” after “subparagraph (C)”; and

(iii) by adding at the end the following:

“(ii) If the Register of Copyrights determines, pursuant to the rulemaking conducted under subparagraph (C) for purposes of subparagraph (B)(ii), that third-party assistance at the direction of an intended user should be exempt from the prohibition contained in subparagraph (A), the Register shall publish that determination and that prohibition shall not apply to such third-party assistance for the ensuing 3-year period.”;

(D) in subparagraph (E), by striking “exception” and inserting “exceptions”; and

(E) by adding at the end the following:

“(F) Notwithstanding subparagraph (B), (C), or (D)—
“(i) the Register of Copyrights shall renew an exception described in clause (i) for the succeeding 3-year period without additional documentation unless a party opposing renewal files a good faith statement in opposition.

“(G)(i) Notwithstanding subparagraph (B), (C), or (D), the Register of Copyrights may make permanent a temporary exception that has been—

“(I) adopted under subparagraph (C) for a 3-year period; and “(II) renewed for the successive 3-year period under subparagraph (F) without opposition.

“(iii) If the Register of Copyrights receives a good faith statement in opposition to a temporary exception described in clause (i), the Register shall provide notice to the public that the exception has reentered the rulemaking proceeding described in subsection (a)(1);

(2) in subsection (a)(2)—

(A) inserting

“(D) The Register of Copyrights may provide by regulation that this paragraph shall not apply to the manufacture, importation, offering to the public, provision, or other trafficking of a technology, product, service, device, component, or part thereof to the intended user of an exemption under subsection (1).

(3) in subsection (b)—

(A) by redesignating paragraph (2) as paragraph (3); and

(B) by inserting in paragraph (1) the following:

(i) by striking “subsection (2)” and inserting “paragraph (2) of this subsection”; and

(ii) by striking “section (a)(2)” and inserting “subsection (a)(2)”;

(iii) by striking “security testing” and inserting “good-faith security research”; and

(5) by adding at the end the following:

“(l) Assistive Technologies Exemption.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), it is not a violation of this section for a person to circumvent a technological protection measure or to provide assistance or a tool at the direction of the user for an activity that enables a blind or visually impaired individual to utilize assistive technologies, to the extent that the activity does not constitute infringement under this title.

“(m) Unlocking Mobile Devices.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), it is not a violation of this section for a person to circumvent a technological protection measure or to provide assistance or a tool at the direction of the user for an activity that unlocks a mobile device, to the extent that the activity does not constitute infringement under this title.

“(n) Technical Assistance for Computer Programs Exemption.—Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (a) and (b), it is not a violation of this section for a person to circumvent a technological protection measure or to provide assistance or a tool at the direction of the user for an activity that allows the diagnosis, repair, or maintenance of a computer program, including to circumvent obsolete access controls, to the extent that the activity does not constitute infringement under this title.”.

(b) Applicability.—The amendments to section 1201(a)(1) of title 17, United States Code, made by subsection (a)(1) shall apply with respect to the first rulemaking under subparagraph (C) of such section 1201(a)(1) that begins on or after the date of enactment of this Act.

SEC. 6. PROMOTING ATTRIBUTION THROUGH COPYRIGHT MANAGEMENT INFORMATION.

(a) Integrity of Copyright Management Information.—Section 1202 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (a)—

(A) by redesignating paragraphs (1) and (2) as subparagraphs (A) and (B), respectively, and adjusting the margins accordingly;

(B) by striking “No person” and inserting the following:

“(1) IN GENERAL.—No person”; and

(C) by adding at the end the following:

“(2) MENS REA REQUIREMENT.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the requirement that an action be taken with intent to induce, enable, facilitate, or conceal infringement—

“(A) shall be satisfied by knowledge that the action is being taken and doing so would encourage or facilitate infringement; and
“(B) does not require any pattern of conduct or modus operandi.”;

(2) in subsection (b)—

(A) by redesignating paragraphs (1), (2), and (3) as subparagraphs (A), (B), and (C), respectively, and adjusting the margins accordingly;

(B) by striking “No person” and inserting the following:

“(1) IN GENERAL.—No person”;

(C) by moving the undesignated matter following subparagraph (C), as so redesignated, 2 ems to the right; and

(D) by adding at the end the following:

“(2) MENS REA REQUIREMENT.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the requirement that an action be taken with knowledge, or reasonable grounds to know, that the action will induce, enable, facilitate, or conceal infringement—

“(A) shall be satisfied by knowledge that the action is being taken and doing so would encourage or facilitate infringement; and

“(B) does not require any pattern of conduct or modus operandi.”; and

(3) in subsection (c)—

(A) by redesignating paragraphs (1) through (8) as subparagraphs (A) through (H), respectively, and adjusting the margins accordingly;

(B) by striking “As used in this section” and inserting the following:

“(1) IN GENERAL.—As used in this section”; and

(C) by adding at the end the following:

“(2) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—For purposes of paragraph (1), the term ‘including in digital form’ shall not be construed to exclude information conveyed in forms other than digital.”.

(b) Requirement for Non-authors to Affix Copyright Management Information.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 12 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by inserting after section 1202 the following:

“1202A. Requirement for non-authors to affix copyright management information

“(a) Definition.—In this section, the term ‘copyright management information’ has the meaning given the term in section 1202.

“(b) Requirement to Affix Information.—The copyright owner of a work who is not the author of the work shall affix copyright management information to any digital copy of the work reproduced or distributed by the copyright owner.

“(c) Right of Action for Authors.—If a person removes copyright information from, or alters copyright management information conveyed in connection with, a digital or analog copy of a copyrighted work with the intent to conceal the attribution information of the author of the work, the author may bring a civil action against the person in an appropriation district court of the United States, and may pursue remedies under section 1203 of this title”.

(2) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—The table of sections for chapter 12 of title 17, United States Code, is amended by inserting after the item relating to section 1202 the following:

“1202A. Requirement for non-authors to affix copyright management information.”.

“1502. Copyright Claims Board

“(a) In General.—There is established in the Copyright Office the Copyright Claims Board, which shall serve as an alternative forum in which parties may voluntarily seek to resolve certain copyright claims regarding any category of copyrighted work, as provided in this chapter.

“(b) Officers and Staff.—

“(1) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS OFFICERS.—The Register of Copyrights shall recommend 6 full-time Copyright Claims Officers to serve on the Copyright Claims Board in accordance with paragraph (3)(A). The Officers shall be appointed by the [Secretary of Commerce] to such positions after consultation with the Register of Copyrights.

“(2) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS ATTORNEYS.—The Register of Copyrights shall hire not fewer than 6 full-time Copyright Claims Attorneys to assist in the administration of the Copyright Claims Board.

“(3) QUALIFICATIONS.—

“(A) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS OFFICERS.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—Each Copyright Claims Officer shall be an attorney who has not fewer than 7 years of legal experience.

“(ii) EXPERIENCE.—Four of the Copyright Claims Officers shall—

“(I) have substantial experience in the evaluation, litigation, or adjudication of copyright infringement claims; and “(II) between those 4 Officers, have represented or presided over a diversity of copyright interests, including those of both owners and users of copyrighted works.

“(iii) ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION.—The Copyright Claims Officer not described in clause (ii) shall have substantial familiarity with copyright law and experience in the field of alternative dispute resolution, including the resolution of litigation matters through that method of resolution.

“(B) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS ATTORNEYS.—Each Copyright Claims Attorney shall be an attorney who has not fewer than 3 years of substantial experience in copyright law.

“(4) COMPENSATION.—
“(A) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS OFFICERS.—

“(i) DEFINITION.—In this subparagraph, the term ‘senior level employee of the Federal Government’ means an employee, other than an employee in the Senior Executive Service, the position of whom is classified above GS–15 of the General Schedule.

“(ii) PAY RANGE.—Each Copyright Claims Officer shall be compensated at a rate of pay that is not less than the minimum, and not more than the maximum, rate of pay payable for senior level employees of the Federal Government, including locality pay, as applicable.

“(B) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS ATTORNEYS.—Each Copyright Claims Attorney shall be compensated at a rate of pay that is not more than the maximum rate of pay payable for level 10 of GS–15 of the General Schedule, including locality pay, as applicable.

“(5) TERMS.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), a Copyright Claims Officer shall serve for a renewable term of 6 years.

“(B) INITIAL TERMS.—The terms for the first Copyright Claims Officers appointed under this chapter shall be as follows:

“(i) The first two such Copyright Claims Officer appointed shall be appointed for a term of 4 years.

“(ii) The second pair of Copyright Claims Officer appointed shall be appointed for a term of 5 years.

“(iii) The third pair of Copyright Claims Officer appointed shall be appointed for a term of 6 years.

“(6) VACANCIES AND INCAPACITY.—

“(A) VACANCY.—

“(i) IN GENERAL.—If a vacancy occurs in the position of a Copyright Claims Officer, the [Secretary of Commerce] shall, upon the recommendation of, and in consultation with, the Register of Copyrights, act expeditiously to appoint a Copyright Claims Officer for that position.

“(ii) VACANCY BEFORE EXPIRATION.—An individual appointed to fill a vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term for which the predecessor of the individual was appointed shall be appointed to serve a 6-year term.

“(B) INCAPACITY.—If a Copyright Claims Officer is temporarily unable to perform the duties of the Officer, the [Secretary of Commerce] shall, upon recommendation of, and in consultation with, the Register of Copyrights, act expeditiously to appoint an interim Copyright Claims Officer to perform such duties during the period of such incapacity.

“(7) SANCTION OR REMOVAL.—Subject to section 1503(b), the [Secretary of Commerce] may sanction or remove a Copyright Claims Officer.

“(8) ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT.—The Register of Copyrights shall provide the Copyright Claims Officers and Copyright Claims Attorneys with necessary administrative support, including technological facilities, to carry out the duties of the Officers and Attorneys under this chapter.

“(9) LOCATION OF COPYRIGHT CLAIMS BOARD.—The offices and facilities of the Copyright Claims Officers and Copyright Claims Attorneys shall be located at the Copyright Office.

“1503. Authority and duties of the Copyright Claims Board

“(a) Functions.—

“(1) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS OFFICERS.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter and applicable regulations, the functions of the Copyright Claims Officers shall be as follows:

“(A) To render determinations on the civil copyright claims, counterclaims, and defenses that may be brought before the Officers under this chapter.

“(B) To ensure that claims, counterclaims, and defenses are properly asserted and otherwise appropriate for resolution by the Copyright Claims Board.

“(C) To manage the proceedings before the Officers and render rulings pertaining to the consideration of claims, counterclaims, and defenses, including with respect to scheduling, discovery, evidentiary, and other matters.

“(D) To request, from participants and nonparticipants in a proceeding, the production of information and documents relevant to the resolution of a claim, counterclaim, or defense.

“(E) To conduct hearings and conferences.

“(F) To facilitate the settlement by the parties of claims and counterclaims.

“(G) To—

“(i) award monetary relief; and

“(ii) include in the determinations of the Officers a requirement that certain activities under section 1504(e)(2) cease or be mitigated, if the party to undertake the applicable measure has so agreed.

“(H) To provide information to the public concerning the procedures and requirements of the Copyright Claims Board.

“(I) To maintain records of the proceedings before the Officers, certify official records of such proceedings as needed, and, as provided in section 1506(t), make the records in such proceedings available to the public.

“(J) To carry out such other duties as are set forth in this chapter.

“(K) When not engaged in performing the duties of the Officers set forth in this chapter, to perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Register of Copyrights.

“(2) COPYRIGHT CLAIMS ATTORNEYS.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter and applicable regulations, the functions of the Copyright Claims Attorneys shall be as follows:

“(A) To provide assistance to the Copyright Claims Officers in the administration of the duties of those Officers under this chapter.

“(B) To provide assistance to members of the public with respect to the procedures and requirements of the Copyright Claims Board.

“(C) To provide information to potential claimants contemplating bringing a permissible action before the Copyright Claims Board about obtaining a subpoena under section 512(h) for the sole purpose of identifying a potential respondent in such an action.

“(D) When not engaged in performing the duties of the Attorneys set forth in this chapter, to perform such other duties as may be assigned by the Register of Copyrights.

“(b) Independence in Determinations.—

“(1) In general.—The Copyright Claims Board shall render the determinations of the Board in individual proceedings independently on the basis of the records in the proceedings before it and in accordance with the provisions of this title, judicial precedent, and applicable regulations of the Register of Copyrights.

“(2) Consultation.—The Copyright Claims Officers and Copyright Claims Attorneys—

“(A) may consult with the Register of Copyrights on general issues of law; and “(B) subject to section 1506(x), may not consult with the Register of Copyrights with respect to—

“(i) the facts of any particular matter pending before the Officers and the Attorneys; or “(ii) the application of law to the facts described in clause (i).

“(3) Performance Appraisals.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law or any regulation or policy of the [Department of Commerce] or Register of Copyrights, any performance appraisal of a Copyright Claims Officer or Copyright Claims Attorney may not consider the substantive result of any individual determination reached by the Copyright Claims Board as a basis for appraisal except to the extent that the result may relate to any actual or alleged violation of an ethical standard of conduct.

“(c) Direction by Register.—Subject to subsection (b), the Copyright Claims Officers and Copyright Claims Attorneys shall, in the administration of their duties, be under the general direction of the Register of Copyrights.

“(d) Inconsistent Duties Barred.—A Copyright Claims Officer or Copyright Claims Attorney may not undertake any duty that conflicts with the duties of the Officer or Attorney in connection with the Copyright Claims Board.

“(e) Recusal.—A Copyright Claims Officer or Copyright Claims Attorney shall recuse himself or herself from participation in any proceeding with respect to which the Copyright Claims Officer or Copyright Claims Attorney, as the case may be, has reason to believe that he or she has a conflict of interest.

“(f) Ex Parte Communications.—Except as may otherwise be permitted by applicable law, any party to a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board shall refrain from ex parte communications with the Copyright Claims Officers and the Register of Copyrights concerning the substance of any active or pending proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(g) Judicial Review.—Actions of the Copyright Claims Officers and Register of Copyrights under this chapter in connection with the rendering of any determination are subject to judicial review as provided under section 1508(c) and not under chapter 7 of title 5.

“1504. Nature of proceedings

“(a) Voluntary Participation.—Participation in a Copyright Claims Board proceeding shall be on a voluntary basis in accordance with this chapter, and the right of any party to instead pursue a claim, counterclaim, or defense in a district court of the United States or any other court, and to seek a jury trial, shall be preserved.

“(b) Statute of Limitations.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—A proceeding may not be maintained before the Copyright Claims Board unless the proceeding is commenced, in accordance with section 1506(e), before the Copyright Claims Board not later than 3 years after the claim accrued.

“(2) TOLLING.—Subject to section 1507(a), a proceeding commenced before the Copyright Claims Board shall toll the time permitted under section 507(b) for the commencement of an action on the same claim in a district court of the United States during the period in which the proceeding is pending.

“(c) Permissible Claims, Counterclaims, and Defenses.—The Copyright Claims Board may render determinations with respect to the following claims, counterclaims, and defenses, subject to such further limitations and requirements, including with respect to particular classes of works, as may be set forth in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights:

“(1) A claim for infringement of an exclusive right in a copyrighted work provided under section 106 by the legal or beneficial owner of the exclusive right at the time of the infringement for which the claimant seeks damages, if any, within the limitations set forth in subsection (e)(1).

“(2) A claim for a declaration of noninfringement of an exclusive right in a copyrighted work provided under section 106, consistent with section 2201 of title 28.

“(3) A claim under section 512(f) for misrepresentation in connection with a notification of claimed infringement or a counter notification seeking to replace removed or disabled material, except that any remedies relating to such a claim in a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board shall be limited to those available under this chapter.

“(4) A counterclaim that is asserted solely against the claimant in a proceeding—

“(A) pursuant to which the counterclaimant seeks damages, if any, within the limitations set forth in subsection (e)(1); and

“(B) that—

“(i) arises under section 106 or section 512(f) and out of the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject of a claim of infringement brought under paragraph (1), a claim of noninfringement brought under paragraph (2), or a claim of misrepresentation brought under paragraph (3); or “(ii) arises under an agreement pertaining to the same transaction or occurrence that is the subject of a claim of infringement brought under paragraph (1), if the agreement could affect the relief awarded to the claimant.

“(5) A legal or equitable defense under this title or otherwise available under law, in response to a claim or counterclaim asserted under this subsection.

“(6) A single claim or multiple claims permitted under paragraph (1), (2), or (3) by 1 or more claimants against 1 or more respondents, but only if all claims asserted in any 1 proceeding arise out of the same allegedly infringing activity or continuous course of infringing activities and do not, in the aggregate, result in the recovery of such claim or claims for damages that exceed the limitations under subsection (e)(1).

“(d) Excluded Claims.—The following claims and counterclaims are not subject to determination by the Copyright Claims Board:

“(1) A claim or counterclaim that is not a permissible claim or counterclaim under subsection (c).

“(2) A claim or counterclaim that has been finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction or that is pending before a court of competent jurisdiction, unless that court has granted a stay to permit that claim or counterclaim to proceed before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(3) A claim or counterclaim by or against a Federal or State governmental entity.

“(4) A claim or counterclaim asserted against a person or entity residing outside of the United States, except in a case in which the person or entity initiated the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board and is subject to counterclaims under this chapter.

“(e) Permissible Remedies.—

“(1) MONETARY RECOVERY.—

“(A) ACTUAL DAMAGES, PROFITS, AND STATUTORY DAMAGES FOR INFRINGEMENT.—

With respect to a claim or counterclaim for infringement of copyright, and subject to the limitation on total monetary recovery under subparagraph (D), the Copyright Claims Board may award either of the following:

“(i) Actual damages and profits determined in accordance with section 504(b), with that award taking into consideration, in appropriate cases, whether the infringing party has agreed to cease or mitigate the infringing activity under paragraph (2).

“(ii) Statutory damages, which shall be determined in accordance with section 504(c), subject to the following conditions:

“(I) With respect to works timely registered under section 412, so that the works are eligible for an award of statutory damages in accordance with that section, the statutory damages may not exceed $15,000 for each work infringed.

“(II) With respect to works not timely registered under section 412, but eligible for an award of statutory damages under this section, statutory damages may not exceed $7,500 per work infringed, or a total of $15,000 in any 1 proceeding.

“(III) The Copyright Claims Board may not make any finding that, or consider whether, the infringement was committed willfully in making an award of statutory damages.

“(IV) The Copyright Claims Board may consider, as an additional factor in awarding statutory damages, whether the infringer has agreed to cease or mitigate the infringing activity under paragraph (2).

“(B) ELECTION OF DAMAGES.—With respect to a claim or counterclaim of infringement, at any time before final determination is rendered, the claimant or counterclaimant shall, in accordance with the schedule established by the Copyright Claims Board under section 1506(k), elect—

“(i) to pursue actual damages and profits or statutory damages under subparagraph (A); or “(ii) not to pursue damages.

“(C) DAMAGES FOR OTHER CLAIMS.—Damages for claims and counterclaims other than infringement claims, such as those brought under section 512(f), shall be subject to the limitation under subparagraph (D).

“(D) LIMITATION ON TOTAL MONETARY RECOVERY.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a party that pursues any 1 or more claims or counterclaims in any single proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board may not seek or recover in that proceeding a total monetary recovery that exceeds the sum of $30,000, exclusive of any attorneys’ fees and costs that may be awarded under section 1506(y)(2).

“(2) AGREEMENT TO CEASE CERTAIN ACTIVITY.—In a determination of the Copyright Claims Board, the Board shall include a requirement to cease conduct if, in the proceeding relating to the determination—

“(A) a party agrees—

“(i) to cease activity that is found to be infringing, including removing or disabling access to, or destroying, infringing materials; or

“(ii) to cease sending a takedown notice or counter notice under section 512 to the other party regarding the conduct at issue before the Board if that notice or counter notice was found to be a knowing material misrepresentation under section 512(f); and

“(B) the agreement described in subparagraph (A) is reflected in the record for the proceeding.

“(3) ATTORNEYS’ FEES AND COSTS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, except in the case of bad faith conduct as provided in section 1506(y)(2), the parties to proceedings before the Copyright Claims Board shall bear their own attorneys’ fees and costs.

“(f) Joint and Several Liability.—Parties to a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board may be found jointly and severally liable if all such parties and relevant claims or counterclaims arise from the same activity or activities.

“(g) Permissible Number of Cases.—The Register of Copyrights may establish regulations relating to the permitted number of proceedings each year by the same claimant under this chapter, in the interests of justice and the administration of the Copyright Claims Board.

“1505. Registration requirement

“(a) Application or Certificate.—A claim or counterclaim alleging infringement of an exclusive right in a copyrighted work may not be asserted before the Copyright Claims Board unless—

“(1) the legal or beneficial owner of the copyright has first delivered a completed application, a deposit, and the required fee for registration of the copyright to the Copyright Office; and

“(2) a registration certificate has either been issued or has not been refused.

“(b) Certificate of Registration.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a claimant or counterclaimant in a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board shall be eligible to recover actual damages and profits or statutory damages under this chapter for infringement of a work if the requirements of subsection (a) have been met, except that—

“(1) the Copyright Claims Board may not render a determination in the proceeding until—

“(A) a registration certificate with respect to the work has been issued by the Copyright Office, submitted to the Copyright Claims Board, and made available to the other parties to the proceeding; and

“(B) the other parties to the proceeding have been provided an opportunity to address the registration certificate;

“(2) if the proceeding may not proceed further because a registration certificate for the work is pending, the proceeding shall be held in abeyance pending submission of the certificate to the Copyright Claims Board, except that, if the proceeding is held in abeyance for more than 1 year, the Copyright Claims Board may, upon providing written notice to the parties to the proceeding, and 30 days to the parties to respond to the notice, dismiss the proceeding without prejudice; and

“(3) if the Copyright Claims Board receives notice that registration with respect to the work has been refused, the proceeding shall be dismissed without prejudice.

“(c) Presumption.—In a case in which a registration certificate shows that registration with respect to a work was issued not later than 5 years after the date of the first publication of the work, the presumption under section 410(c) shall apply in a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board, in addition to relevant principles of law under this title.

“(d) Regulations.—In order to ensure that actions before the Copyright Claims Board proceed in a timely manner, the Register of Copyrights shall establish regulations allowing the Copyright Office to make a decision, on an expedited basis, to issue or deny copyright registration for an unregistered work that is at issue before the Board.
“1506. Conduct of proceedings

“(a) In General.—

“(1) APPLICABLE LAW.—Proceedings of the Copyright Claims Board shall be conducted in accordance with this chapter and regulations established by the Register of Copyrights under this chapter, in addition to relevant principles of law under this title.

“(2) CONFLICTING PRECEDENT.—If it appears that there may be conflicting judicial precedent on an issue of substantive copyright law that cannot be reconciled, the Copyright Claims Board shall follow the law of the Federal jurisdiction in which the action could have been brought if filed in a district court of the United States, or, if the action could have been brought in more than 1 such jurisdiction, the jurisdiction that the Copyright Claims Board determines has the most significant ties to the parties and conduct at issue.

“(b) Record.—The Copyright Claims Board shall maintain records documenting the proceedings before the Board.

“(c) Centralized Process.—Proceedings before the Copyright Claims Board shall—

“(1) be conducted at the offices of the Copyright Claims Board without the requirement of in-person appearances by parties or others; and

“(2) take place by means of written submissions, hearings, and conferences carried out through internet-based applications and other telecommunications facilities, except that, in cases in which physical or other nontestimonial evidence material to a proceeding cannot be furnished to the Copyright Claims Board through available telecommunications facilities, the Copyright Claims Board may make alternative arrangements for the submission of such evidence that do not prejudice any other party to the proceeding.

“(d) Representation.—A party to a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board may be, but is not required to be, represented by—

“(1) an attorney; or

“(2) a law student who is qualified under applicable law governing representation by law students of parties in legal proceedings and who provides such representation on a pro bono basis.

“(e) Commencement of Proceeding.—In order to commence a proceeding under this chapter, a claimant shall, subject to such additional requirements as may be prescribed in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights, file a claim with the Copyright Claims Board, that—

“(1) includes a statement of material facts in support of the claim;

“(2) is certified under subsection (y)(1); and

“(3) is accompanied by a filing fee in such amount as may be prescribed in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights.

“(f) Review of Claims and Counterclaims.—

“(1) CLAIMS.—Upon the filing of a claim under subsection (e), the claim shall be reviewed by a Copyright Claims Attorney to ensure that the claim complies with this chapter and applicable regulations, subject to the following:
“(A) If the claim is found to comply, the claimant shall be notified regarding that compliance and instructed to proceed with service of the claim under subsection (g).

“(B) If the claim is found not to comply, the claimant shall be notified that the claim is deficient and be permitted to file an amended claim not later than 30 days after the date on which the claimant receives the notice, without the requirement of an additional filing fee. If the claimant files a compliant claim within that 30-day period, the claimant shall be so notified and be instructed to proceed with service of the claim. If the claim is refiled within that 30-day period and still fails to comply, the claimant shall again be notified that the claim is deficient and shall be provided a second opportunity to amend the claim not later than 30 days after the date of that second notice, without the requirement of an additional filing fee. If the claim is refiled again within that second 30-day period and is compliant, the claimant shall be so notified and shall be instructed to proceed with service of the claim, but if the claim still fails to comply, upon confirmation of such noncompliance by a Copyright Claims Officer, the proceeding shall be dismissed without prejudice. The Copyright Claims Board shall also dismiss without prejudice any proceeding in which a compliant claim is not filed within the applicable 30-day period.

“(C)(i) Subject to clause (ii), for purposes of this paragraph, a claim against an online service provider for infringement by reason of the storage of or referral or linking to infringing material that may be subject to the limitations on liability set forth in subsection (b), (c), or (d) of section 512 shall be considered noncompliant unless the claimant affirms in the statement required under subsection (e)(1) of this section that the claimant has previously notified the service provider of the claimed infringement in accordance with subsection (b)(2)(E), (c)(3), or (d)(3) of section 512, as applicable, and the service provider failed to remove or disable access to the material expeditiously upon the provision of such notice.

“(ii) If a claim is found to be noncompliant under clause (i), the Copyright Claims Board shall provide the claimant with information concerning the service of such a notice under the applicable provision of section 512.

“(2) COUNTERCLAIMS.—Upon the filing and service of a counterclaim, the counterclaim shall be reviewed by a Copyright Claims Attorney to ensure that the counterclaim complies with the provisions of this chapter and applicable regulations. If the counterclaim is found not to comply, the counterclaimant and the other parties to the proceeding shall be notified that the counterclaim is deficient, and the counterclaimant shall be permitted to file and serve an amended counterclaim not later than 30 days after the date of such notice. If the counterclaimant files and serves a compliant counterclaim within that 30-day period, the counterclaimant and such other parties shall be so notified. If the counterclaim is refiled and served within that 30-day period but still fails to comply, the counterclaimant and such other parties shall again be notified that the counterclaim is deficient, and the counterclaimant shall be provided a second opportunity to amend the counterclaim not later than 30 days after the date of the second notice. If the counterclaim is refiled and served again within that second 30-day period and is compliant, the counterclaimant and such other parties shall be so notified, but if the counterclaim still fails to comply, upon confirmation of such noncompliance by a Copyright Claims Officer, the counterclaim, but not the proceeding, shall be dismissed without prejudice.
(3) DISMISSAL OF UNSUITABILITY.—The Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss a claim or counterclaim without prejudice if, upon reviewing the claim or counterclaim, or at any other time in the proceeding, the Copyright Claims Board concludes that the claim or counterclaim is unsuitable for determination by the Copyright Claims Board, including on account of any of the following:

(A) The failure to join a necessary party.

(B) The lack of an essential witness, evidence, or expert testimony.

(C) The determination of a relevant issue of law or fact that could exceed either the number of proceedings the Copyright Claims Board could reasonably administer or the subject matter competence of the Copyright Claims Board.

(g) Service of Notice and Claims.—In order to proceed with a claim against a respondent, a claimant shall, not later than 90 days after receiving notification under subsection (f) to proceed with service, file with the Copyright Claims Board proof of service on the respondent. In order to effectuate service on a respondent, the claimant shall cause notice of the proceeding and a copy of the claim to be served on the respondent, either by personal service or pursuant to a waiver of personal service, as prescribed in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights. Such regulations shall include the following requirements:

(1) The notice of the proceeding shall adhere to a prescribed form and shall set forth the nature of the Copyright Claims Board and proceeding, the right of the respondent to opt out, and the consequences of opting out and not opting out, including a prominent statement that, by not opting out within 60 days after receiving the notice, the respondent—

(A) loses the opportunity to have the dispute decided by a court created under article III of the Constitution of the United States; and

(B) waives the right to a jury trial regarding the dispute.

(2) The copy of the claim served on the respondent shall be the same as the claim that was filed with the Copyright Claims Board.

(3) Personal service of a notice and claim may be effected by an individual who is not a party to the proceeding and is older than 18 years of age.

(4) An individual, other than a minor or incompetent individual, may be served by—

(A) complying with State law for serving a summons in an action brought in courts of general jurisdiction in the State where service is made;

(B) delivering a copy of the notice and claim to the individual personally;

(C) leaving a copy of the notice and claim at the individual’s dwelling or usual place of abode with someone of suitable age and discretion who resides there; or

(D) delivering a copy of the notice and claim to an agent designated by the respondent to receive service of process or, if not so designated, an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process.

(5)(A) A corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association that is subject to suit in courts of general jurisdiction under a common name shall be served by delivering a copy of the notice and claim to its service agent. If such service agent has not been designated, service shall be accomplished—

“(i) by complying with State law for serving a summons in an action brought in courts of general jurisdiction in the State where service is made; or

“(ii) by delivering a copy of the notice and claim to an officer, a managing or general agent, or any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process in an action brought in courts of general jurisdiction in the State where service is made and, if the agent is one authorized by statute and the statute so requires, by also mailing a copy of the notice and claim to the respondent.

“(B) A corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association that is subject to suit in courts of general jurisdiction under a common name may elect to designate a service agent to receive notice of a claim against it before the Copyright Claims Board by complying with requirements that the Register of Copyrights shall establish by regulation. The Register of Copyrights shall maintain a current directory of service agents that is available to the public for inspection, including through the internet, and may require such corporations, partnerships, and unincorporated associations designating such service agents to pay a fee to cover the costs of maintaining the directory.

“(6) In order to request a waiver of personal service, the claimant may notify a respondent, by first class mail or by other reasonable means, that a proceeding has been commenced, such notice to be made in accordance with regulations established by the Register of Copyrights, subject to the following:

“(A) Any such request shall be in writing, shall be addressed to the respondent, and shall be accompanied by a prescribed notice of the proceeding, a copy of the claim as filed with the Copyright Claims Board, a prescribed form for waiver of personal service, and a prepaid or other means of returning the form without cost.

“(B) The request shall state the date on which the request is sent, and shall provide the respondent a period of 30 days, beginning on the date on which the request is sent, to return the waiver form signed by the respondent. The signed waiver form shall, for purposes of this subsection, constitute acceptance and proof of service as of the date on which the waiver is signed.

“(7)(A) A respondent’s waiver of personal service shall not constitute a waiver of the respondent’s right to opt out of the proceeding.

“(B) A respondent who timely waives personal service under paragraph (6) and does not opt out of the proceeding shall be permitted a period of 30 days, in addition to the period otherwise permitted under the applicable procedures of the Copyright Claims Board, to submit a substantive response to the claim, including any defenses and counterclaims.

“(8) A minor or an incompetent individual may only be served by complying with State law for serving a summons or like process on such an individual in an action brought in the courts of general jurisdiction of the State where service is made.

“(9) Service of a claim and waiver of personal service may only be effected within the United States.

“(h) Notification by Copyright Claims Board.—The Register of Copyrights shall establish regulations providing for a written notification to be sent by, or on behalf of, the Copyright Claims Board to notify the respondent of a pending proceeding against the respondent, as set forth in those regulations, which shall—

“(1) include information concerning the respondent’s right to opt out of the proceeding, the consequences of opting out and not opting out, and a prominent statement that, by not opting out within 60 days after the date of service under subsection (g), the respondent loses the opportunity to have the dispute decided by a court created under article III of the Constitution of the United States and waives the right to a jury trial regarding the dispute; and

“(2) be in addition to, and separate and apart from, the notice requirements under subsection (g).

“(i) Opt-Out Procedure.—Upon being properly served with a notice and claim, a respondent who chooses to opt out of the proceeding shall have a period of 60 days, beginning on the date of service, in which to provide written notice of such choice to the Copyright Claims Board, in accordance with regulations established by the Register of Copyrights. If proof of service has been filed by the claimant and the respondent does not submit an opt-out notice to the Copyright Claims Board within that 60-day period, the proceeding shall be deemed an active proceeding and the respondent shall be bound by the determination in the proceeding to the extent provided under section 1507(a). If the respondent opts out of the proceeding during that 60-day period, the proceeding shall be dismissed without prejudice, except that, in exceptional circumstances and upon written notice to the claimant, the Copyright Claims Board may extend that 60-day period in the interests of justice.

“(j) Service of Other Documents.—Documents submitted or relied upon in a proceeding, other than the notice and claim, shall be served in accordance with regulations established by the Register of Copyrights.

“(k) Scheduling.—Upon confirmation that a proceeding has become an active proceeding, the Copyright Claims Board shall issue a schedule for the future conduct of the proceeding. A schedule issued by the Copyright Claims Board may be amended by the Copyright Claims Board in the interests of justice.

“(l) Conferences.—One or more Copyright Claims Officers may hold a conference to address case management or discovery issues in a proceeding, which shall be noted upon the record of the proceeding and may be recorded or transcribed.

“(m) Party Submissions.—A proceeding of the Copyright Claims Board may not include any formal motion practice, except that, subject to applicable regulations and procedures of the Copyright Claims Board—

“(1) the parties to the proceeding may make requests to the Copyright Claims Board to address case management and discovery matters, and submit responses thereto; and

“(2) the Copyright Claims Board may request or permit parties to make submissions addressing relevant questions of fact or law, or other matters, including matters raised sua sponte by the Copyright Claims Officers, and offer responses thereto.

“(n) Discovery.—Discovery in a proceeding shall be limited to the production of relevant information and documents, written interrogatories, and written requests for admission, as provided in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights, except that—
“(1) upon the request of a party, and for good cause shown, the Copyright Claims Board may approve additional relevant discovery, on a limited basis, in particular matters, and may request specific information and documents from participants in the proceeding and voluntary submissions from nonparticipants, consistent with the interests of justice;

“(2) upon the request of a party, and for good cause shown, the Copyright Claims Board may issue a protective order to limit the disclosure of documents or testimony that contain confidential information; and

“(3) after providing notice and an opportunity to respond, and upon good cause shown, the Copyright Claims Board may apply an adverse inference with respect to disputed facts against a party who has failed to timely provide discovery materials in response to a proper request for materials that could be relevant to such facts.

“(o) Evidence.—The Copyright Claims Board may consider the following types of evidence in a proceeding, and such evidence may be admitted without application of formal rules of evidence:

“(1) Documentary and other nontestimonial evidence that is relevant to the claims, counterclaims, or defenses in the proceeding.

“(2) Testimonial evidence, submitted under penalty of perjury in written form or in accordance with subsection (p), limited to statements of the parties and nonexpert witnesses, that is relevant to the claims, counterclaims, and defenses in a proceeding, except that, in exceptional cases, expert witness testimony or other types of testimony may be permitted by the Copyright Claims Board for good cause shown.

“(p) Hearings.—The Copyright Claims Board may conduct a hearing to receive oral presentations on issues of fact or law from parties and witnesses to a proceeding, including oral testimony, subject to the following:

“(1) Any such hearing shall be attended by not fewer than 2 of the Copyright Claims Officers.

“(2) The hearing shall be noted upon the record of the proceeding and, subject to paragraph (3), may be recorded or transcribed as deemed necessary by the Copyright Claims Board.

“(3) A recording or transcript of the hearing shall be made available to any Copyright Claims Officer who is not in attendance.

“(q) Voluntary Dismissal.—

“(1) BY CLAIMANT.—Upon the written request of a claimant that is received before a respondent files a response to the claim in a proceeding, the Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss the proceeding, or a claim or respondent, as requested, without prejudice.

“(2) BY COUNTERCLAIMANT.—Upon written request of a counterclaimant that is received before a claimant files a response to the counterclaim, the Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss the counterclaim, such dismissal to be without prejudice.

“(3) CLASS ACTIONS.—Any party in an active proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board who receives notice of a pending or putative class action, arising out of the same transaction or occurrence, in which that party is a class member may request in writing dismission of the proceeding before the Board. Upon notice to all claimants and counterclaimants, the Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss the proceeding without prejudice.

“(r) Settlement.—

“(1) IN GENERAL.—At any time in an active proceeding, some or all of the parties may—

“(A) jointly request a conference with a Copyright Claims Officer for the purpose of facilitating settlement discussions; or “(B) submit to the Copyright Claims Board an agreement providing for settlement and dismissal of some or all of the claims and counterclaims in the proceeding.

“(2) ADDITIONAL REQUEST.—A submission under paragraph (1)(B) may include a request that the Copyright Claims Board adopt some or all of the terms of the parties’ settlement in a final determination in the proceeding.

“(s) Factual Findings.—Subject to subsection (n)(3), the Copyright Claims Board shall make factual findings based upon a preponderance of the evidence.

“(t) Determinations.—

“(1) NATURE AND CONTENTS.—A determination rendered by the Copyright Claims Board in a proceeding shall—

“(A) be reached by a majority of the Copyright Claims Board;

“(B) be in writing, and include an explanation of the factual and legal basis of the determination;

“(C) set forth any terms by which a respondent or counterclaim respondent has agreed to cease infringing activity under section 1504(e)(2);

“(D) to the extent requested under subsection (r)(2), set forth the terms of any settlement agreed to under subsection (r)(1); and

“(E) include a clear statement of all damages and other relief awarded, including under subparagraphs (C) and (D).

“(2) DISSENT.—A Copyright Claims Officer who dissents from a decision contained in a determination under paragraph (1) may append a statement setting forth the grounds for that dissent.

“(3) PUBLICATION.—Each final determination of the Copyright Claims Board shall be made available on a publicly accessible website. The Register shall establish regulations with respect to the publication of other records and information relating to such determinations, including the redaction of records to protect confidential information that is the subject of a protective order under subsection (n)(2).

“(4) FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT.—All information relating to proceedings of the Copyright Claims Board under this chapter is exempt from disclosure to the public under section 552(b)(3) of title 5, except for determinations, records, and information published under paragraph (3).

“(u) Respondent’s Default.—If a proceeding has been deemed an active proceeding but the respondent has failed to appear or has ceased participating in the proceeding, as demonstrated by the respondent’s failure, without justifiable cause, to meet 1 or more deadlines or requirements set forth in the schedule adopted by the Copyright Claims Board under subsection (k), the Copyright Claims Board may enter a default determination, including the dismissal of any counterclaim asserted by the respondent, as follows and in accordance with such other requirements as the Register of Copyrights may establish by regulation:

“(1) The Copyright Claims Board shall require the claimant to submit relevant evidence and other information in support of the claimant’s claim and any asserted damages and, only reviewing of such evidence and any other requested submissions from the claimant, shall determine whether the materials so submitted are sufficient to support a finding in favor of the claimant under applicable law and, if so, the appropriate relief and damages, if any, to be awarded.

“(2) If the Copyright Claims Board makes an affirmative determination under paragraph (1), the Copyright Claims Board shall prepare a proposed default determination, and shall provide written notice to the respondent at all addresses, including email addresses, reflected in the records of the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board, of the pending determination by the Copyright Claims Board and of the legal significance of such determination. Such notice shall be accompanied by the proposed default determination and shall provide that the respondent has a period of 30 days, beginning on the date of the notice, to submit any evidence or other information in opposition to the proposed default determination.

“(3) If the respondent responds to the notice provided under paragraph (2) within the 30-day period provided in such paragraph, the Copyright Claims Board shall consider the respondent’s submissions and, after allowing the other parties to address such submissions, maintain, or amend its proposed determination as appropriate, and the resulting determination shall not be a default determination.

“(4) If the respondent fails to respond to the notice provided under paragraph (2), the Copyright Claims Board shall proceed to issue the default determination as a final determination. Thereafter, the respondent may only challenge such determination to the extent permitted under section 1508(c), except that, before any additional proceedings are initiated under section 1508, the Copyright Claims Board may, in the interests of justice, vacate the default determination.

“(v) Claimant’s Failure To Proceed.—

“(1) FAILURE TO COMPLETE SERVICE.—If a claimant fails to complete service on a respondent within the 90-day period required under subsection (g), the Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss that respondent from the proceeding without prejudice. If a claimant fails to complete service on all respondents within that 90-day period, the Copyright Claims Board shall dismiss the proceeding without prejudice.

“(2) FAILURE TO PROSECUTE.—If a claimant fails to proceed in an active proceeding, as demonstrated by the claimant’s failure, without justifiable cause, to meet 1 or more deadlines or requirements set forth in the schedule adopted by the Copyright Claims Board under subsection (k), the Copyright Claims Board may, upon providing written notice to the claimant and a period of 30 days, beginning on the date of the notice, to respond to the notice, and after considering any such response, issue a determination dismissing the claimant’s claims, which shall include an award of attorneys’ fees and costs, if appropriate, under subsection (y)(2). Thereafter, the claimant may only challenge such determination to the extent permitted under section 1508(c), except that, before any additional proceedings are initiated under section 1508, the Copyright Claims Board may, in the interests of justice, vacate the determination of dismissal.

“(w) Request for Reconsideration.—A party may, not later than 30 days after the date on which the Copyright Claims Board issues a final determination in a proceeding under this chapter, submit a written request for reconsideration of, or an amendment to, such determination if the party identifies a clear error of law or fact material to the outcome, or a technical mistake.
After providing the other parties an opportunity to address such request, the Copyright Claims Board shall either deny the request or issue an amended final determination.

“(x) Review by Register.—If the Copyright Claims Board denies a party a request for reconsideration of a final determination under subsection (w), that party may, not later than 30 days after the date of such denial, request review of the final determination by the Register of Copyrights in accordance with regulations established by the Register. Such request shall be accompanied by a reasonable filing fee, as provided in such regulations. The review by the Register shall be limited to consideration of whether the Copyright Claims Board abused its discretion in denying reconsideration of the determination. After providing the other parties an opportunity to address the request, the Register shall either deny the request for review, or remand the proceeding to the Copyright Claims Board for reconsideration of issues specified in the remand and for issuance of an amended final determination. Such amended final determination shall not be subject to further consideration or review, other than under section 1508(c).

“(y) Conduct of Parties and Attorneys.—

“(1) Certification.—The Register of Copyrights shall establish regulations requiring certification of the accuracy and truthfulness of statements made by participants in proceedings before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(2) Bad faith conduct.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in any proceeding in which a determination is rendered and it is established that a party pursued a claim, counterclaim, or defense for a harassing or other improper purpose, or without a reasonable basis in law or fact, then, unless inconsistent with the interests of justice, the Copyright Claims Board shall in such determination award reasonable attorneys’ fees and costs to any adversely affected party of in an amount of not more than $5,000, except that—

“(A) if an adversely affected party appeared pro se in the proceeding, the award to that party shall be for costs only, in an amount of not more than $2,500; and “(B) in extraordinary circumstances, such as where a party has demonstrated a pattern or practice of bad faith conduct as described in this paragraph, the Copyright Claims Board may, in the interests of justice, award costs in excess of the limitations under this paragraph.

“(3) Additional penalty.—If the Board finds that on more than 1 occasion within a 12-month period a party pursued a claim, counterclaim, or defense before the Copyright Claims Board for a harassing or other improper purpose, or without a reasonable basis in law or fact, that party shall be barred from initiating a claim before the Copyright Claims Board under this chapter for a period of 12 months beginning on the date on which the Board makes such a finding. Any proceeding commenced by that party that is still pending before the Board when such a finding is made shall be dismissed without prejudice, except that if a proceeding has been deemed active under subsection (i), the proceeding shall be dismissed under this paragraph only if the respondent provides written consent thereto.

“(z) Regulations for Smaller Claims.—The Register of Copyrights shall establish regulations to provide for the consideration and determination, by not less than 1 Copyright Claims Officer, of any claim under this chapter in which total damages sought do not exceed $5,000 (exclusive of attorneys’ fees and costs). A determination issued under this subsection shall have the same effect as a determination issued by the entire Copyright Claims Board.

“1507. Effect of proceeding

“(a) Determination.—Subject to the reconsideration and review processes provided under subsections (w) and (x) of section 1506 and section 1508(c), the issuance of a final determination by the Copyright Claims Board in a proceeding, including a default determination or determination based on a failure to prosecute, shall, solely with respect to the parties to such determination, preclude relitigation before any court or tribunal, or before the Copyright Claims Board, of the claims and counterclaims asserted and finally determined by the Board, and may be relied upon for such purpose in a future action or proceeding arising from the same specific activity or activities, subject to the following:

“(1) A determination of the Copyright Claims Board shall not preclude litigation or relitigation as between the same or different parties before any court or tribunal, or the Copyright Claims Board, of the same or similar issues of fact or law in connection with claims or counterclaims not asserted or not finally determined by the Copyright Claims Board.

“(2) A determination of ownership of a copyrighted work for purposes of resolving a matter before the Copyright Claims Board may not be relied upon, and shall not have any preclusive effect, in any other action or proceeding before any court or tribunal, including the Copyright Claims Board.

“(3) Except to the extent permitted under this subsection and section 1508, any determination of the Copyright Claims Board may not be cited or relied upon as legal precedent in any other action or proceeding before any court or tribunal, including the Copyright Claims Board.

“(b) Class Actions Not Affected.—

“(1) In general.—A proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board shall not have any effect on a class action proceeding in a district court of the United States, and section 1509(a) shall not apply to a class action proceeding in a district court of the United States.

“(2) Notice of class action.—Any party to an active proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board who receives notice of a pending class action, arising out of the same transaction or occurrence as the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board, in which the party is a class member shall either—

“(A) opt out of the class action, in accordance with regulations established by the Register of Copyrights; or

“(B) seek dismissal under section 1506(q)(3) of the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(c) Other Materials in Proceeding.—Except as permitted under this section and section 1508, a submission or statement of a party or witness made in connection with a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board, including a proceeding that is dismissed, may not be cited or relied upon in, or serve as the basis of, any action or proceeding concerning rights or limitations on rights under this title before any court or tribunal, including the Copyright Claims Board.

“(d) Applicability of Section 512(g).—A claim or counterclaim before the Copyright Claims Board that is brought under subsection (c)(1) or (c)(4) of section 1504, or brought under subsection (c)(6) of section 1504 and that relates to a claim under subsection (c)(1) or (c)(4) of such section, qualifies as an action seeking an order to restrain a subscriber from engaging in infringing activity under section 512(g)(2)(C) if—

“(1) notice of the commencement of the Copyright Claims Board proceeding is provided by the claimant to the service provider’s designated agent before the service provider replaces the material following receipt of a counter notification under section 512(g); and

“(2) the claim brought alleges infringement of the material identified in the notification of claimed infringement under section 512(c)(1)(C).

“(e) Failure To Assert Counterclaim.—The failure or inability to assert a counterclaim in a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board shall not preclude the assertion of that counterclaim in a subsequent court action or proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(f) Opt-Out or Dismissal of Party.—If a party has timely opted out of a proceeding under section 1506(i) or is dismissed from a proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board issues a final determination in the proceeding, the determination shall not be binding upon and shall have no preclusive effect with respect to that party.

“1508. Review and confirmation by district court

“(a) In General.—In any proceeding in which a party has failed to pay damages, or has failed otherwise to comply with the relief, awarded in a final determination of the Copyright Claims Board, including a default determination or a determination based on a failure to prosecute, the aggrieved party may, not later than 1 year after the date on which the final determination is issued, any reconsideration by the Copyright Claims Board or review by the Register of Copyrights is resolved, or an amended final determination is issued, whichever occurs last, apply to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or any other appropriate district court of the United States for an order confirming the relief awarded in the final determination and reducing such award to judgment. The court shall grant such order and direct entry of judgment unless the determination is or has been vacated, modified, or corrected under subsection (c). If the United States District Court for the District of Columbia or other district court of the United States, as the case may be, issues an order confirming the relief awarded by the Copyright Claims Board, the court shall impose on the party who failed to pay damages or otherwise comply with the relief, the reasonable expenses required to secure such order, including attorneys’ fees, that were incurred by the aggrieved party.

“(b) Filing Procedures.—
“(1) APPLICATION TO CONFIRM DETERMINATION.—Notice of the application under subsection (a) for confirmation of a determination of the Copyright Claims Board and entry of judgment shall be provided to all parties to the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board that resulted in the determination, in accordance with the procedures applicable to service of a motion in the district court of the United States where the application is made.

“(2) CONTENTS OF APPLICATION.—The application under subsection (a) shall include the following:

“(A) A certified copy of the final or amended final determination of the Copyright Claims Board, as reflected in the records of the Copyright Claims Board, following any process of reconsideration or review by the Register of Copyrights, to be confirmed and rendered to judgment.

“(B) A declaration by the applicant, under penalty of perjury—

“(i) that the copy is a true and correct copy of such determination;

“(ii) stating the date the determination was issued;

“(iii) stating the basis for the challenge under subsection (c)(1); and “(iv) stating whether the applicant is aware of any other proceedings before the court concerning the same determination of the Copyright Claims Board.

“(c) Challenges to the Determination.—

“(1) BASES FOR CHALLENGE.—Not later than 90 days after the date on which the Copyright Claims Board issues a final or amended final determination in a proceeding, or not later than 90 days after the date on which the Register of Copyrights completes any process of reconsideration or review of the determination, whichever occurs later, a party may seek a court order vacating, modifying, or correcting the determination of the Copyright Claims Board in the following cases:

“(A) If the determination was issued as a result of fraud, corruption, misrepresentation, or other misconduct.

“(B) If the Copyright Claims Board exceeded its authority or failed to render a final determination concerning the subject matter at issue.

“(C) In the case of a default determination or determination based on a failure to prosecute, if it is established that the default or failure was due to excusable neglect.

“(2) PROCEDURE TO CHALLENGE.—

“(A) NOTICE OF APPLICATION.—Notice of the application to challenge a determination of the Copyright Claims Board shall be provided to all parties to the proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board, in accordance with the procedures applicable to service of a motion in the court where the application is made.

“(B) STAYING OF PROCEEDINGS.—For purposes of an application under this subsection, any judge who is authorized to issue an order to stay the proceedings in another action brought in the same court may issue an order, to be served with the notice of application, staying proceedings to enforce the award while the challenge is pending.
“1509. Relationship to other district court actions

“(a) Stay of District Court Proceedings.—Subject to section 1507(b), a district court of the United States shall issue a stay of proceedings or such other relief as the court determines appropriate with respect to any claim brought before the court that is already the subject of a pending or active proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board.

“(b) Alternative Dispute Resolution Process.—A proceeding before the Copyright Claims Board under this chapter shall qualify as an alternative dispute resolution process under section 651 of title 28 for purposes of referral of eligible cases by district courts of the United States upon the consent of the parties.

“1510. Implementation by Copyright Office

“(a) Regulations.—

“(1) IMPLEMENTATION GENERALLY.—The Register of Copyrights shall establish regulations to carry out this chapter. Such regulations shall include the fees prescribed under subsections (e) and (x) of section 1506. The authority to issue such fees shall not limit the authority of the Register of Copyrights to establish fees for services under section 708. All fees received by the Copyright Office in connection with the activities under this chapter shall be deposited by the Register of Copyrights and credited to the appropriations for necessary expenses of the Office in accordance with section 708(d). In establishing regulations under this subsection, the Register of Copyrights shall provide for the efficient administration of the Copyright Claims Board, and for the ability of the Copyright Claims Board to timely complete proceedings instituted under this chapter, including by implementing mechanisms to prevent harassing or improper use of the Copyright Claims Board by any party.

“(2) LIMITS ON MONETARY RELIEF.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—Subject to subparagraph (B), the Register of Copyrights may, in order to further the goals of the Copyright Claims Board, conduct a rulemaking to adjust the limits on monetary recovery or attorneys’ fees and costs that may be awarded under this chapter.

“(B) EFFECTIVE DATE OF ADJUSTMENT.—Any rule under subparagraph (A) that makes an adjustment shall take effect at the end of the 120-day period beginning on the date on which the Register of Copyrights submits the rule to Congress and only if Congress does not, during that 120-day period, enact a law that provides in substance that Congress does not approve the rule.

“(b) Necessary Facilities.—Subject to applicable law, the Register of Copyrights may retain outside vendors to establish internet-based, teleconferencing, and other facilities required to operate the Copyright Claims Board.

“(c) Fees.—Any filing fees, including the fee to commence a proceeding under section 1506(e), shall be prescribed in regulations established by the Register of Copyrights. The sum total of such filing fees shall be in an amount of not less than $100, may not exceed the cost of filing an action in a district court of the United States, and shall be fixed in amounts that further the goals of the Copyright Claims Board.
“1511. Funding

“There are authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary to pay the costs incurred by the Copyright Office under this chapter that are not covered by fees collected for services rendered under this chapter, including the costs of establishing and maintaining the Copyright Claims Board and its facilities.”.

(2) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of chapters for title 17, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

“15. Copyright Small Claims

1501”.

(b) Implementation.—Not later than 1 year after the date of enactment of this Act, the Copyright Claims Board established under section 1502 of title 17, United States Code, as added by subsection (a) of this section, shall begin operations.

(c) Study.—Not later than 3 years after the date on which the Copyright Claims Board issues the first determination of the Copyright Claims Board under chapter 15 of title 17, United States Code, as added by subsection (a) of this section, the Register of Copyrights shall conduct, and report to Congress on, a study that addresses the following:

(1) The use and efficacy of the Copyright Claims Board in resolving copyright claims, including the number of proceedings the Copyright Claims Board could reasonably administer.

(2) Whether adjustments to the authority of the Copyright Claims Board are necessary or advisable, including with respect to—

(A) eligible claims, such as claims under section 1202 of title 17, United States Code; and

(B) works and applicable damages limitations.

(3) Whether greater allowance should be made to permit awards of attorneys’ fees and costs to prevailing parties, including potential limitations on such awards.

(4) Potential mechanisms to assist copyright owners with small claims in ascertaining the identity and location of unknown online infringers.

(5) Whether the Copyright Claims Board should be expanded to offer mediation or other nonbinding alternative dispute resolution services to interested parties.

(6) Such other matters as the Register of Copyrights believes may be pertinent concerning the Copyright Claims Board.

(d) Severability.—If any provision of this section, an amendment made by this section, or the application of such provision or amendment to any person or circumstance is held to be unconstitutional, the remainder of this section and the amendments made by this section, and the application of the provision or the amendment to any other person or circumstance, shall not be affected.

SEC. 8. STUDY ON ANCILLARY COPYRIGHT FOR PRESS PUBLISHERS.

The Register of Copyrights shall study the costs, benefits, and viability of adding ancillary copyright for press publishers to Federal law. The Register shall, not later than 12 months after the date of the enactment of this Act, submit to the Congress a report on the evaluation, including any legislative recommendations the Register may have.

“(b) Application for Renewed and Extended Term.—If an application”;

(3) by adding at the end the following:

“(c) Good Faith Error in Application for Registration.—If an application for copyright registration under this section contains a good faith error, but would otherwise be registrable, the Register of Copyrights—

“(1) may not refuse registration based on the error; and

“(2) shall allow the applicant to amend the application to correct the error at any time, including after the registration of the work, without payment of any additional fee, unless correction of the error requires that the original application be split into multiple separate applications, in which case the applicant shall elect to which application the initial fee shall be applied.”.

(b) Effect on Enforcement of Copyright.—Section 411 of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) in subsection (b)—

(A) by striking “(b)(1)” and all that follows through the end of paragraph (2) and inserting the following:

“(b)(1) A certificate of registration that contains inaccurate information shall not be deemed to satisfy the requirements of this section and section 412, for the purposes of a civil action for infringement, if the alleged infringer proves that—

“(A) the alleged infringer reasonably relied on the inaccurate information in engaging in the act alleged to constitute infringement; and

“(B) the act described in subparagraph (A) would not have constituted infringement had the correct information been included in the application.”; and

(B) by redesignating paragraph (3) as paragraph (2); and

(2) by adding at the end the following:

“(d) Effect of Inaccurate Information on Validity of Registration. — The inclusion of inaccurate information in an application for registration shall not affect the validity of any registration unless subsection (b)(1) or section 413 is satisfied.”.

(c) Effective Date of New Registration. — Section 410(d) of title 17, United States Code, is amended—

(1) by striking “The Effective date” and inserting “(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), the effective date”; and

(2) by adding at the end, the following:

“(2) If an application or certificate of registration contains a good faith error and a new application or an application for supplementary registration is required due to the nature of the error, the effective date of the new registration shall be the same as the effective date of the initial registration.”.
