Congressionally Directed Spending Requests

Recipient Name	Project Purpose	Project Location	Amount Requested ($000)
Cape Fear Valley Health	To increase the supply a critical number of physicians to serve patients in the rural areas of southeastern North Carolina. Funding is needed to upfit and equip an outpatient clinic to train physician residents in orthopedic surgery.	Cumberland County NC	$903
Dunn Police	Dunn PAL, since 1995, has served nearly 6,000 youth in our after-school program. Due to the need to expand capacity, these funds will help us improve our motor fleet and complete construction of our multi-purpose building. This will help us become more efficient in the long-term.	Dunn NC	$800
Veterans Life Center	This project seeks to increase veteran outreach to educate employers on better ways to attract and support veteran employees, provide crisis intervention training to law enforcement, and educate clinicians on how to reduce the veteran suicide rate.	Granville NC	$750
University of North Carolina System	Digital infrastructure upgrades are needed at UNC System campuses, so they fully utilize Project Kitty Hawk services to serve more adult learners online in market-aligned degree programs. Technology upgrades will benefit those who who need access to high quality upskilling but must balance	Statewide NC	$7,800
